

Greg Banaszak

Saxophone Faculty, Conservatory

Saxophone Faculty, Joint Music Program

Greg Banaszak, one of today's leading saxophonists, has performed with orchestras and at concert halls throughout the world. He has appeared as concerto soloist and recitalist throughout the U Eastern and Western Europe, the Middle East and Asia, including the countries of France, Germany, Hungary, Poland, Austria, Belgium, Egypt, South Korea, Dominican Republic, Finland, India and Japan.

Banaszak is one of the most sought-after orchestral saxophone soloists of his generation. As one of the few saxophonists active in both the classical and jazz mediums, Banaszak's repertoire includes concerto performances, solo and chamber music recitals and jazz festival appearances. He has presented recitals in such prestigious concert halls as Vienna's Bösendorfer Concert Hall; Royal Palace in Warsaw, Poland and Lincoln Center's Bruno Walter Hall in New York. He has presented master classes at Austria's Musik Hochschule, Cairo Conservatory, Oberlin Conservatory and Tanglewood Institute, and has served as principal saxophonist for the leading opera orchestras of Warsaw, Berlin, Paris and Cleveland. Banaszak is also a member of the American Saxophone Association and the International Saxophone Association.

